Judge Erwin:

We write to notify you that Jillian Weiss filed a brief on the docket yesterday (ECF No. 71) which discloses the substance of our settlement demand made pursuant to your judicial settlement conference order (ECF No. 44).

As the email thread below reflects, we promptly notified Ms. Weiss that disclosure of our demand, made in a January 5, 2024 letter correcting our settlement statement, violates the confidentiality terms of your order. Ms. Weiss rebuffed our attempts to seek a private cure of this disclosure by claiming our January 5 letter was made "after the settlement conference" that occurred on January 9, 2024. Additionally, Ms. Weiss has refused any further conferral to resolve this problem privately.

We humbly ask that you make a certification of non-compliance with the confidentiality terms of your settlement order.

Attached to this email please find a copy of your settlement conference order, Ms. Weiss' filing, as well as our January 5 letter. (Pertinent parts are highlighted.)

With much respect,

Ezra Young and Brittany Stewart

This communication was made after the settlement conference, and was not part of the settlement conference. You waived confidentiality by so doing. That is my final response.

Jill:

We have reviewed your responsive brief filed as ECF No. 71 in the interpleader case. We write to confer with you about corrective action necessary with respect to confidential settlement communications we made via letter on January 5, 2024.

In your filing at page two, footnote two you state, in pertinent part: "On January 5, 2024, they sent a letter to the parties stating their demand is $1,750,269.26, based on their hourly billing, of which $102,240 is for Ms. Stewart, and the remainder for Mr. Young." We believe that this disclosure—of the content and substance of our settlement demand, transmitted to you and the other parties—violates Judge Erwin's settlement conference order (ECF No. 44).

Confidentiality of our statement is set forth in ¶ 7 of Judge Erwin's order ("The settlement conference statements and all communications occurring during the settlement conference are confidential and, except as otherwise permitted under Fed. R. Evid. 408 or other provisions of federal law, cannot be used by any party in the trial of the case.").

We intend to reach out to Judge Erwin—and will cc all parties on that email—to request a certification of your noncompliance with the confidentiality provisions of his order.

Please advise as to your position on our request.

Ezra and Brittany
